tend Congressional convention.
2. Three delegates to attend State convention.

- Nominating a Representative.
   Probate Judge.
   Clerk of District Court.
- County Attorney. Supt. of Public Instruction.
- Commissioner for 1st District.

The following resolutions were rea and unanimously adopted:

The republicans of Ford county, Kan sas, in annual convention assembled, RESOLVE, 1st. That we hereby congratulate ourselves, and our party of proudest history, that although we differ for candidates we yet as to our choice for candidates we yet present a united front against all oppo-nents, state and national, with cheering prospects for continued supremacy.

2nd. That we endorse the per and successful administration of President Harrison and his cabinet; of our Governor and state officers, and our county officials, upon a successful and honorable discharge of their duties as

3rd. That when our minor disputes are settled by nominations, we pledge to our standard bearers our loyal and united efforts; reckoning him the best republican who shall carry the colors of our en-tire ticket farthest into the enemy's

4th. That we especially endorse the recent pension legislation of our party as progress in the right direction; and insist that our state representative and congressman shall faithfully advance the interests of our State Soldiers' Home.

5th. That Kansas may well be proud of the record and votes of her delegates in congress in the matter of the free coinage of silver as tending to prosper and build up this western section of our na-tional domain. And further RESOLVED, That the Hon. J. W. Rush of the 35th Senatorial District of Kansas, is hereby instructed to cast his vote for the Hon. John J. Ingalls to succeed himself in the United States senate from our J. A. ARMENT.

R. G. JONES, W. C. EATON, C. F. MILLS, G. C. PRATT.

The following resolution was read and tabled with but one dissenting vote:

"Whereas, experience has demonstrated that prohibition is a failure and has failed to accomplish the end and object sought to be accomplished; and whereas the law as demonstrated is obnoxious to the people, and has in the course of its attempted enforcement met with stubborn resistance and defiance and thereby necessitated the immense sums of money for prosecution which has failed-and which necessarily must fail so long as the contest on one delegate from Second law is obnoxious to the people; therefore ward. The chair ruled that the contested be it resolved that we, the republicans of Ford county, in convention assembled, do instruct the nominee of this convenrganization.

A temporary organization was then able means to secure re-submission of effected by placing John Goodwine in said prohibitory law, that the people who should rule may have an opportunity to vote upon said question in the light of practical experience with it since its adoption. Resolved, that we believe a high license system will best subserve the interests of all and promote the cause of temperance, as well as clear our court dockets of civil business and lessen state and county burdens imposed without effect and without hope of effect, and which will result in harmonizing the republican party.'

The committee on permanent organization reported as follows: That the temporary organization be made permanent, and that R. F. Scoffern be made assistant secretary.

The convention then proceeded with the election of delegates to the congressional convention. E. E. Smith, J. A. Arment, W. W. Apperson, A. Russell and Dr. C. A. Milton were placed in nomination, it being agreed that the four receiving the largest vote be declared the delegates, resulting as follows:

Smith, 68; Russell, 67; Milton, 63; Arment, 47; Apperson, 31.

J. M. Burson, John Groendyke and L. Sims were elected by acclamation to represent the county at the State convention. Nominations being in order for Representative, John L. Finley and Dr. D. D. Rose were presented as aspirants. The first ballot decided the contest:

John L. Finley, 40. D. D. Rose, 15. There being no opposition to D. W.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved. The judiciary committee made the following report which was on motion accepted and the job work printing of the city let to the Times Publishing Company as recommended by said report:

DODGE CITY, July 16th, 1890. We, the committee to whom was referred the matter of the job work print-ing of the city report as follows:

We have examined the bids filed with the city clerk for said work and find that the Times Publishing Company will contract to do the job work printing of the city for less money than any other office in the city and we therefore favor the letting of said work to the Times. Respectfully submitted.

CHAS. BEEMAN, Chairman, JNO. T. HUBBARD, Com. SAMUEL STUBBS,

The city clerk's report of the financial ondition of the city was on motion re ferred to the finance committee.

Mr. Geo. B. Cox, by his representative Hon. R. M. Wright, requested the city council to so modify or change the ordinance providing for and establishing fire limits in the city, as to permit him to repair the old Dodge House. Mr. Shinn moved that the request be refused, which motion carried by unanimous vote of the council.

On motion council adjourned. Attest: L. G. GROBETT, City Clerk. TO TRABE.
